

The Challenge to Read

V.1

Open up the door, take a look inside,
Wonder what will happen, what we'll see
We can be inspired to be anything
When we open up a book and believe.

V.2

Dare to be changed, take your heart and mind,
Find yourself in places never seen
Your imagination can take you there
Just say 'Yes' to the challenge to read.

Ch.1

Crossing a desert, sailing the seas
Discover a planet, go wherever I please
Monsters galore in faraway lands
I can choose my own adventures all in my hands
Now I believe,
I will because champions read!

V.3

Travel round the world, one page at a time
Discover lands uncharted and unknown
Look into the future or history
Or create a Wonderland of your own.

Ch.2

Worlds without equal, real or pretend
Journey alone, or explore with a friend
Flying with dragons, or trav'ling through time
I can go because I know I'm up to the climb
Now I believe,
I will because champions read!

I'll accept the challenge there,
Then take it with me anywhere
Now I believe,
I will because champions read!
